3) As this is the first time an Examination is held under a revised Scheme it may perhaps be convenient if the Committee themselves send a draft notification indicating the dates of the different examinations and other details. If this procedure be approved, action re: (iii) will be taken soon after the Committee is constituted.

In reply to your letter No.1727/C.B. 112.35 dated the 3rd February 1936.

The constitution of the proposed Committee for conducting the Civil Service Examination seems suitable. For the sixth place perhaps either Mr. K.Matthan or Mr. S.E. Ranganadhan (formerly Vice-Chancellor of the Annamalai University) might be considered.

From start to finish, under this scheme, the examination will extend over the best part of two months. I append a very tentative time-table for the whole examination.

The special books for Part I should be prescribed about 3 months before the examination begins. So a meeting of the Board will have to be held in July for this purpose.

A preliminary meeting of the Board will have to be held to define the scope of the papers, etc. before the examination is notified to the public. This meeting may be held in March.

I shall be glad to have your views on these suggestions.

Yours sincerely,
